

PARKS, RECREATION AND MARINE

Provide leisure programs and services through people, places and partnerships to residents and visitors, which enhance neighborhoods and improve the quality of life in Long Beach.

Chapter Overview

This budget chapter reflects key elements of the Department of Parks, Recreation and Marine Strategic Business Plan, which was developed as part the City's commitment to performance management.

As part of this strategic planning process, the Department identified, with input from community stakeholders and employees, significant issues to be confronted over the next two- to five-years. Strategic objectives have also been developed as part of this effort to help guide the Department in addressing these issues. The Department of Parks, Recreation and Marine has also developed its program structure and a full family of program performance measures, including outcome, efficiency, demand, and output measures. The program structure and performance measures serve as the basis for the City's performance-based program budget and will add clarity to the City's budget by aligning department program information (purpose statement and listing of services), budget allocations, and performance information, all at the program level.

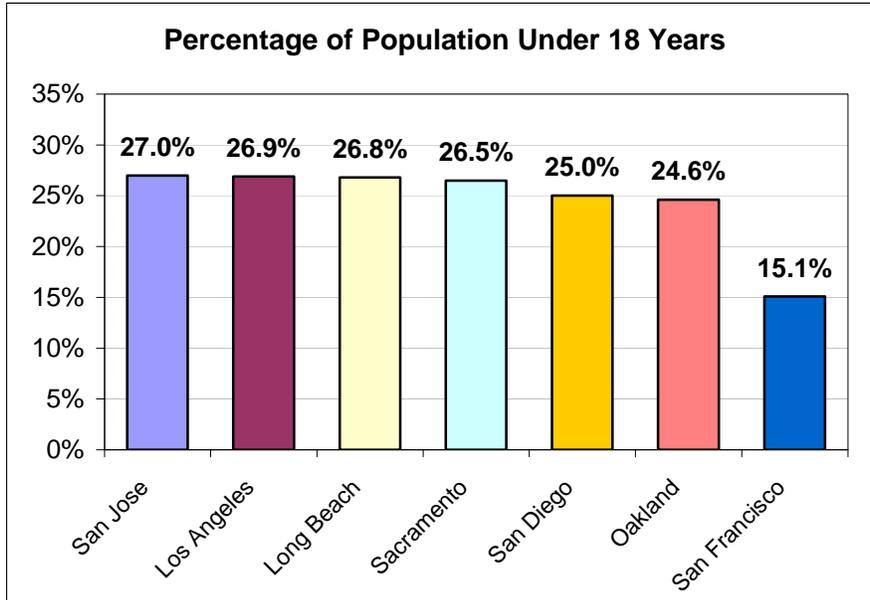

Please note that while the Department of Parks, Recreation and Marine has completed its Strategic Business Plan, a number of the key performance measures may be new to the Department and will take time to fully develop and collect the performance information. Therefore, some performance measures are presented at this time without the corresponding performance information. As the Department is able to work toward full implementation, existing measures may be changed and/or new ones may be added.

Service Delivery Environment

Many factors influence the operations of the Department of Parks, Recreation and Marine. These factors are not unique to the City of Long Beach; however, when combined, they create a service delivery environment that presents formidable challenges. Four of the major factors influencing Department operations and strategic planning efforts are described below.

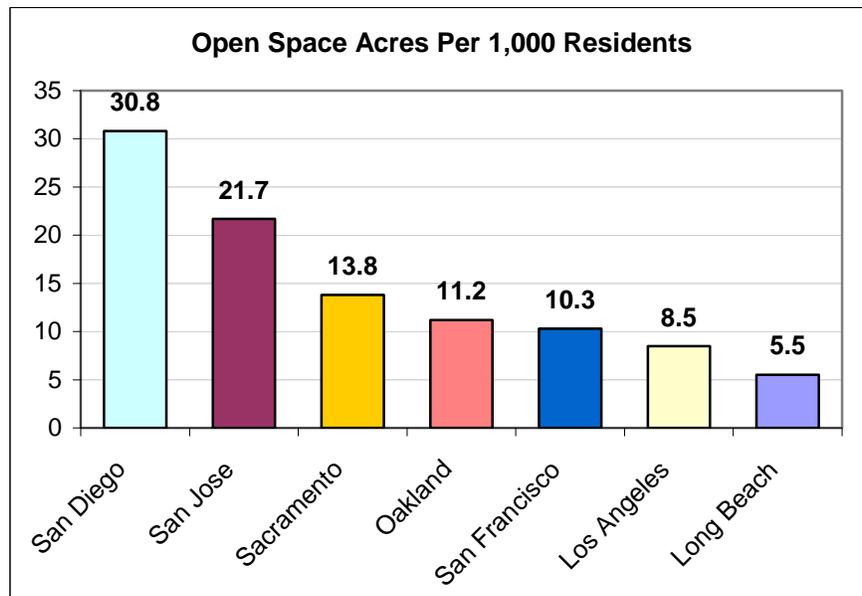

As seen in the chart above, Long Beach has one of the highest percentages of youth ages 18 years and younger compared to other large California cities. Additionally, as seen in the chart below, Long Beach also has the one of highest percentages of residents living in poverty. Approximately one-third of these residents are youth. This information is from the U.S. Census Bureau's American Community Survey (2005), available at <http://www.factfinder.census.gov/>

Service Delivery Environment

Long Beach is an ethnically diverse city, as indicated in the charts above. In fact, it is among the most ethnically diverse large cities in the nation. Accordingly, the Department of Parks, Recreation and Marine must strive to meet the leisure needs and interests of residents from many cultures and origins.

As seen in the chart above, there are approximately 5.5 acres of recreational open space within the City of Long Beach for every 1,000 residents (based on 2006 population estimate and staff research). This is substantially below the average of 14.6 acres per 1,000 for other major cities in California. It is important to note that many of these other cities have State, county, or open space district parks within their boundaries that serve the needs of their residents. Long Beach does not have any of these types of parks. Many factors influence the operations of the Department of Parks, Recreation and Marine. These factors are not unique to the City of Long Beach; however, when combined, they create a service delivery environment that presents formidable challenges.

Significant Issues

- Fifty percent (50%) of the parks facilities and seventy percent (70%) of marina and beach facilities are below acceptable or satisfactory industry or customer standards, which results in
  - Less customer satisfaction,
  - Increasing safety incidents,
  - Lower service quality,
  - Potential building and facility closures,
  - Less use and revenue generation, and
  - Negative customer perceptions of the City and the services it provides.
- The City's ethnic and socio-economic diversity, an unequal distribution of parkland, an aging infrastructure, and declining budget resources have combined to create a complex service delivery environment. To meet the needs of our citizens, the Department is continually challenged to find balance between competing needs. These challenges include:
  - The need to meet community expectations versus the need to be fiscally responsible.
  - The need for increased cost recovery versus the need to provide free and low cost opportunities for youth, seniors, and economically depressed citizens.
  - The need to accommodate and encourage park/facility use versus the need to prevent park/facility overuse and abuse.
  - The need to provide active recreation opportunities versus the need to preserve natural habitat.
- In October 2002, the City Council adopted a policy of having a minimum of 8.0 acres of open space per 1,000 residents. The City currently has an average of 5.5 acres of open space per 1,000 residents, and the open space we do have is inequitably distributed across the city. Many neighborhoods enjoy much less than the average. In order to meet the policy, a substantial amount of capital must be raised and invested in the acquisition and development of additional open space and parkland.
- Many residents are not utilizing the City's parks and recreational facilities, or are not utilizing them to the extent they would like, due to concerns about gang and drug activity, the potential for personal injury, and vandalism of personal property. The Department's ability to address these issues has been hampered by several years of budget reductions that have resulted in decreased hours of supervision and programming, as well as a decreased Park Ranger presence in our parks.
- Nearly 30 percent of the City's residents are under 18 years of age. Despite the efforts of City departments, the Long Beach Unified School District, and non-profit organizations, large numbers of youth are not participating in supervised recreation and enrichment opportunities -- some because of their lack of proximity or access to these opportunities, and others because they choose not to participate. There is widespread agreement amongst our national, regional, and local leaders that engaging youth in positive activity is of great importance. Yet, the resources have not followed. Park staffing is at minimum levels. This equates to limited operating hours and uncomfortably high participant-to-staff ratios. The Department is stretched to provide core services and general supervision, let alone implement new programming that reflects recreational trends or addresses personal health and development.
- There is ever-increasing interest on the part of the motion picture and television industries to film in the City of Long Beach. With a modest staff enhancement, the Department could significantly increase the number of filming production days, and, thus significantly increase the amount of revenue received. However, our ability to accommodate additional filming activity is constrained by the impacts this activity has on neighborhood residents.

Strategic Objectives

- By 2009, the Department will increase the percentage of park grounds and buildings maintained in satisfactory or better condition from 50 percent to 60 percent (Park Grounds Maintenance and Park Facility Maintenance Program).

Focus Area: Culture, Education and Leisure; Youth: No

- By 2009, the Department will achieve an 80 percent resident satisfaction level with beach recreation opportunities, as indicated by the percentage of residents rating beach recreation opportunities as good to excellent (Beach & Waterway Operations Program).

Focus Area: Culture, Education and Leisure; Youth: No

- By 2009, the Department will achieve an 85 percent boat owner satisfaction rating, as indicated by the percentage of boat owners (marina tenants) rating marina services and facilities as good to excellent (Marinas Program).

Focus Area: Culture, Education and Leisure; Youth: No

- By 2010, the Department will increase the percentage of Long Beach households reporting that at least one member of the household participated in a Department-provided recreation or enrichment opportunity (within the prior 12 months) by 10 percent (Park Management & Operations Program).

Focus Area: Culture, Education and Leisure; Youth: Yes

- By 2009, the Department will increase the number of youth and teens participating in Department-provided recreation and enrichment opportunities citywide by 10 percent (Youth & Teen Program).

Focus Area: Culture, Education and Leisure; Youth: Yes

- By 2009, the Department will increase the number of youth and teens participating in Department-provided recreation and enrichment opportunities in high youth crime areas by 15 percent (Youth & Teen Program).

Focus Area: Culture, Education and Leisure; Youth: Yes

- By 2009, the Department will increase the number of annual average filming production days by 10 percent, while increasing the average annual number of complaints satisfactorily resolved by 25 percent (Filming Program).

Focus Area: Business and Economic Assistance; Youth: No

- By 2012, the Department will acquire sufficient acres of recreational open space to achieve 6.0 acres per 1,000 residents consistent with the City's approved Open Space Plan (Acquisition & Development Program).

Focus Area: Culture, Education and Leisure; Youth: No

- By 2012, the Department will increase the percentage of Long Beach residents who live within a quarter-mile of developed open space areas from 53 percent to 58 percent (Acquisition & Development Program).

Focus Area: Culture, Education and Leisure; Youth: No

- By 2009, the Department will increase the number of seniors participating in Department-provided senior recreation and enrichment opportunities citywide by 10 percent (Seniors Program).

Focus Area: Culture, Education and Leisure; Youth: No

Results Narrative:

The adopted Aquatics Program budget will provide approximately 238,000 visits to the Department's aquatic facilities, which include four swimming pools, the Leeway Sailing Center, and the Model Boat Shop, at an average per visit expense of $3.34 (net). The adopted budget will provide 7,200 fewer aquatics facility visits than the prior year's target, but 1,616 more than were provided for the year. Capacity standards at Silverado Pool, while maintaining current hours of operation, may impact total number of pool users accommodated during FY 08. The adopted budget also reflects an internal budget reallocation, cost of living wage adjustments for staff, and increased utility and internal services costs. This Program promotes the City Council priority to support programs that encourage the public's health and well being.

Youth & Teen Program

Focus Area: Culture, Education and Leisure

Line of Business: Community Recreation

Program Purpose Statement: To provide supervised, structured and unstructured recreational activities and services to youth and teens so they may enjoy recreational experiences in a safe, nurturing, and accessible environment.

Key Services Provided: Mentoring Opportunities, Volunteer Opportunities, Unstructured Activities, Instructional Classes (arts-and-crafts, computer, cooking, dance, fitness), Cultural Activities, Neighborhood Events, Games/Tournaments, Tutoring Sessions, Computer Sessions, Field Trips, Equipment Check Outs, Seasonal Activities, Structured Group Activities, Passive Recreation Opportunities, Performances, Extended Day Child Care Services, Adaptive Services, Mobile Recreation Services, Day Camps and After School Programs

Results Narrative:

The adopted Youth & Teen Program budget will provide a wide variety of directed and self-directed recreation opportunities for youth and teens at 30 parks, 13 schools, and 17 mobile recreation sites across the City. Approximately 638,000 participant days will be realized at an average per participant day expense of $1.69 (net). The adopted budget will provide 10,000 fewer participant days than the prior year's target, due to the elimination of the Extended Day Program.

The elimination of the Extended Day Program ($130,000 in net General Fund support) is an expenditure reduction taken to ensure the General Fund budget remains structurally balanced. The adopted budget also reflects cost of living wage adjustments for staff and increased internal services costs. This Program promotes the City Council priorities to improve the quality of life in neighborhoods and to support programs that encourage the public's health and well being.

Seniors Program

Focus Area: Culture, Education and Leisure

Line of Business: Community Recreation

Program Purpose Statement: To provide recreation, health, information, and referral services to community seniors so they can be self-sufficient, and maintain active, rewarding lifestyles.

Key Services Provided: Instructional Classes, Newsletters, Computer Sessions, Socialization Opportunities, Fitness Activities, Field Trips, Meals, Nutrition Information Sessions, Information and Referral Services, Health Screenings, Transportation Services, Peer Counseling Opportunities, Neighborhood Events, Unstructured Activities, Structured Activities and Seminars

Results Narrative:

The adopted Seniors Program budget will provide a wide variety of directed and self-directed recreational and enrichment opportunities for seniors at the Long Beach Senior Center and four regional senior centers (California Recreation Center, Silverado, Houghton, and El Dorado Parks). The adopted budget will provide approximately 255,000 participant days at an average per participant day expense of $2.66 (net).
