Working Together to Serve

Memorandum

Date: June 11, 2015

To: Patrick H. West, City Manager T.M.W.

From: Glenda Williams, Director of Library Services G.Williams

For: Mayor and Members of the City Council

Subject: 2015 Summer Reading Club at the Long Beach Public Library

Everyone is invited to the Summer Reading Club, from June 19 through August 8, 2015. This year's theme for children, teens and adults is "Every Hero Has a Story." Participants of all ages can track their reading progress online and post it via computer, tablet, smart phone or any mobile device. Complete information is posted on the the library's website at www.lbpl.org.

The Long Beach Public Library launches its annual Summer Reading Program with a kick-off celebration at the Mark Twain Neighborhood Library, located at 1401 E. Anaheim St., on Friday, June 19, 2015 from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. Readers of all ages are invited to unmask their inner super hero and join in super fun activities! Come meet a trio of super heroes, decorate a cape and mask, pose for photos, listen to super stories and register for our Summer Reading Program.

Free registration for the Summer Reading Program is easy and can be done online or at any of our twelve library locations. Fun, educational activities are planned at all Long Beach Public Library locations. A variety of scheduled programs include Flights of Fantasy, a program of interactive folktales and fables, Cory the Percussive Storyteller, Wonders of Wildlife, Annie Banannie and Buster Balloon, Long Beach Symphony Orchestra Petting Zoo, Musical Theatre West performing "We Tell Their Story" and many, many more.

For more information or to register for the program, visit your neighborhood Long Beach Public Library or the library's website, www.lbpl.org.
