

PRIORITY LISTS

Sec. 30. When these Rules require employees names to be placed on priority lists, the Executive Director shall place the names on the appropriate list according to seniority, and the employee highest on the list shall be entitled to be offered re-employment first. If two or more employees in the same classification have the same seniority, then the employee who attained the highest standing on the classification's eligible list shall rank first.