Office of the City Attorney

MEMORANDUM

DATE: December 31, 2024

To: Mayor and Members of the City Council

FROM: Dawn McIntosh, City Attorney
Anita Lakhani, Deputy City Attorney

SUBJECT: Current Brown Act Teleconferencing Rules

This memorandum provides a refresher of current¹ teleconferencing rules for public meetings under the Brown Act: (1) the traditional teleconferencing rules, and (2) the Assembly Bill (AB) 2449 and AB 2302 teleconferencing rules.

The traditional teleconferencing rules do not require any qualifying circumstances for legislative body members to teleconference. AB 2449, on the other hand, requires a member of a legislative body to have a qualifying “just cause” or “emergency” circumstance.

As of January 1, 2025, AB 2302 will be in effect. AB 2302 provides clarification on the number of times a member of a body may teleconference under the latest teleconferencing framework created by AB 2449. The cap is based on the frequency of how often the body meets.

Pursuant to AB 2302, a member of a legislative body may only teleconference from a remote location for the following number of meetings:

- Two meetings per year, if the body regularly meets once per month or less.
- Five meetings per year, if the body regularly meets twice per month.
- Seven meetings per year, if the body regularly meets three or more times per month.

For example, members of the City Council are allowed to teleconference under these rules no more than seven times, since the legislative body regularly meets three or more times per month.

¹ NOTE: this memo does not include the teleconferencing rules under Assembly Bill 361 which apply during a proclaimed state of emergency where state or local officials have imposed or recommended measures to promote social distancing and/or where meeting in person would present an imminent risk to the health or safety of attendees. Although AB 361 is still valid law until its relevant provisions expire on January 1, 2024, current circumstances do not authorize the City to hold meetings pursuant to said law.

The table included as Attachment 1 provides additional details via a comparison of the two sets of rules, including internal City of Long Beach reminders.

Please feel free to contact our office should you have any questions on teleconferencing under the Brown Act.
