

Appointed in 2014 to fill the unexpired term of former Trustee Roberto Uranga, Trustee Irma Archuleta has boosted graduation and transfer rates, elevated career training programs, insisted on fiscal efficiency, extended the free tuition program in order to improve student enrollment.

Irma Archuleta's lifetime commitment to promote higher education opportunities for students, regardless of income or background, has guided her 33-year career as staff, faculty and administrator within the California Community College and the California University systems, including 18 years at CSU, Long Beach.

A 30-year Long Beach resident, Irma knows the community and is committed to working with the LBCC Board, administration, faculty, staff and the Long Beach community to further the positive direction and national recognition that the College has attained.

Irma is supported by Los Angeles County Supervisor Don Knabe, Long Beach Mayor Robert Garcia, and Councilmembers Dee Andrews, Lena Gonzalez, and Roberto Uranga, former LBUSD Board Member Bobbie Smith, former LBCC Trustee Patricia Lofland, IBEW, Laborers, and California Nurses Association.

Experience Does Matter.

Ensure that LBCC remains on the cutting-edge and prepares students for the future.

VOTE IRMA ARCHULETA on April 12.

Visit www.IrmaArchuleta.com or call (562) 997-0095