2025 Homeless Point-In-Time Count
CITY OF LONG BEACH
Long Beach conducts an annual census of individuals experiencing homelessness to track progress, guide initiatives, and inform funding decisions. This year, the City enhanced its Point-In-Time Count by introducing updated maps for a more accurate representation of the unhoused population, strengthening targeted outreach efforts, and implementing a new method to collect data on those using shelter services.
SNAPSHOT ON JANUARY 23, 2025
KEY STATISTICS
Total Count
Chronic Homelessness
First Time Homelessness
DEMOGRAPHICS
Veterans
LGBTQ+
Students
Age
Gender
Race
UNDERLYING CONDITIONS
Severe Mental Illness
Physical Disabilities
Chronic Medical Condition
Substance Use Disorder
Traumatic Brain Injury
Developmental Disability
2025 Homeless P
COMPARISON OVER TIME
PRIMARY CAUSES OF HOMELESSNESS
Myth vs. Fact

Fact
CITY OF LONG BEACH
Understanding the Homelessness
Why Are Per
CITY OF LONG BEACH
Evictions & Legal Barriers
HOT DOG
$5.00
WRONG WAY
SPIN TO WIN
Notebook
Bottle
Your Choice!
Tote Bag
sunglasses
Notebook
Tote Bag
Bottle
Notebook
Your Choice!
Bottle
Highlighter
Tote Bag

omeless Point-In-Time Count
CITY OF LONG BEACH
HOMELESSNESS & VEHICLES
1008
Vehicular homelessness now accounts for 38.7% of the unsheltered population, reflecting a rise in homeless individuals with ties to or school, driven by economic pressures and limited shelter
Despite a decline in chronic homelessness, this trend

CITY OF LONG BEACH
The Housing Crisis:
Expensive?
CITY OF LONG BEACH