And Finally

Southwest's "Freedom One" Visits LGB

We got quite a reaction on social media with our reposting of the Long Beach Airport's Freedom One image. The American flag design, with 50 stars and 13 waving stripes, was created by SWA to honor our military and to commemorate the 50th anniversary of Southwest Airlines. The elaborate design elements, known as aircraft livery, required a very detailed process of painting the entire plane. We thought you might enjoy watching the procedure that was captured in a 3-minute video. Click on the arrow in the image below to view the video.
