How to Report And Protect Yourself Against Hate Crimes

Human Dignity Policy

“Everyone should be treated with courtesy and respect, regardless of their racial background, their nation of origin, the religion they practice, their sexual orientation, gender, or disability status...It is the right of all residents to pursue their daily lives with the knowledge that they will not be threatened with violence or physical harm...The City will vigorously fight criminal activity known as hate crimes with all resources at its disposal.”

Know Your Rights!

California Civil code 51.7 states: “All persons within the jurisdiction of this state have the right to be free from any violence, or intimidation by threat of violence, committed against their persons or property because of their race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, political affiliation, sex, sexual orientation, age, disability, or position in a labor dispute, or because another person perceives them to have one or more of these characteristics.”

Any person who violates section 51.7 is liable for each and every offense for the actual damage suffered by any person determined by a court of law. Damages shall be paid to the victim by the offender as follows:

- Up to a maximum of three times the amount of actual damages
- A civil penalty of ten thousand dollars ($10,000); and
- Attorney’s fees as may be determined by the court

Program

We Prevent. We Educate. We Respond. We Celebrate

If You Have Been the Victim of a Hate Crime or Bias-Motivated Incident:
Call the Long Beach Police Department
In an emergency, call: 9-1-1
For a non-emergency, call: (562) 435-6711

When the police officers arrive, you can expect to be treated professionally. The officers will document the facts and call a field supervisor to the scene. If the assailant uses derogatory names, inform the officer so it may be added to the report. You will be given a crime report number to follow the progress of your case.

What is a Hate Crime?

A hate crime, as defined in section 422.55 of the California Penal Code, is a criminal act committed, in whole or in part, because of one or more of the following actual or perceived characteristics of the victim: Disability, gender, nationality, race, ethnicity, religion, or sexual orientation – or because of the victim’s association with a person or group with one or more of these actual or perceived characteristics.

Note: A “Bias-Motivated Incident” is different than a hate crime, in that it is a non-criminal action or behavior that is motivated by hate, but is protected by the First Amendment right to freedom of expression. Examples include name-calling, distribution of hate material in public places and the display of offensive hate-motivated material on one’s property. Graffiti on an overpass would also be considered a bias-motivated incident, as graffiti needs to be directed at a specific target to be considered a hate crime.

Regardless, all forms of hate should be reported to the City’s Human Dignity Program. For more information, please contact Human Dignity Program Coordinator Teresa Gomez at (562) 570-6730.

How to Avoid Danger...

- Avoid walking alone
- Stay in well lighted areas
- Always have your keys ready
- Lock your doors as soon as you are inside your car
- Do not respond to verbal taunts
- Be alert and aware of your surroundings at all times
- Don’t be brave! If you’re in danger, yell, blow a whistle, or run!
- Report suspicious activity immediately by calling 9-1-1
